The District and Sessions Judge. Manager, Residency Press, Inspector of Schools and the Commissioner of Police Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, state that no ----- additions and alterations are required in the list of appointments for which officiating promotions are -------- admissible.

The Collector and District Magistrate recommends that the peons of the Income-tax office may be allowed to officiate in the posts of process servers .

The Residency Surgeon considers that acting allowance should be given to any one acting as First or Second Steward .

Resident's Office.

The duties of the Budget Clerk (100-5-150) and the additional Clerk (100-5-150) are more responsible than those of the Clerk on the lowest scale (35-100) . It is for orders ------ whether whether acting promotions may be allowed to the above two posts.

Draft reply to the Pay and Accounts Officer, ----- together with a statement is submitted for approval.

What: How does the Retrenchment campaign affect these allowances? Has the question of cutting the allowance in the Munsiff's Court been considered? If not, Why not?

The Retrenchment campaign does not affect these acting allowances. The acting allowances are granted when one --- clerk acts for another in leave vacancies. This is not therefore a recurring expenditure. The question of ----- cutting this allowance ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ in the case of the Head Clerk, Munsiff Magistrate's Court was not ------- considered before. Please see S.N. 21/276-21 in which the Government of India sanctioned the grant of acting allowance to the Head Clerk, Second Magistrate's Court.

The

The duties of the Second Magistrate's Court are now ------ performed by the Munsiff Magistrate's Court. It is ------ therefore proposed to allow acting allowances in the case of Head Clerk, Munsiff Magistrate's Court. If the ----- Head Clerk, Munsiff Magistrate's Court does not go on ----- leave no acting allowances will be given to any one.

In the circumstances the draft already submitted may now issue?

Dated Bangalore, 30th April 1930.

Subject.

Acting allowances to certain class of Govt. servants employed in the Residency Press, Bangalore.

SIR,

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with letter from the Govt. of India Department of Industries and Labour, No.A-408, dated 5-6-1928, deciding that acting allowances shall be allowed only in respect of certain classes of appointments in the Residency Press, Bangalore, and to state that a new appointment of Computer has been added to the Press establishment from 1-1-1929 (Vide letter No. A-408, dated 4-12-1928 from the Govt. Of India in the Department of Industries and Labour).

2. The duties of a computer are entirely different from that done by a clerk and storekeeper or a reader. He has to value the outturn of work done by the Press and to attend to the preparation of work bills. As his duties are more responsible than those of a clerk or reader, I recommend that the post be included among the classes of appointments for which acting promotion shall be allowed

3. The list of such classes will then read:

(1) Manager
(2) Foreman & Asst. Foreman
(3) Computer
(4) Clerk & Storekeeper and Reader.
(5) Copyholder.

(B)

With reference to your No.1433/276-1921, dated the 27th. February 1931, I have the honour to inform you that the duties of the Head Clerk & First Steward are more onerous and more responsible than those of Second Steward and other clerks. Similarly, the work of the Second Steward is more onerous than the work of other clerks. I am therefore of opinion that the acting allowance should be given to any one acting on a higher grade in the ministerial staff of this Hospital.

As regards the Nursing Staff, the duties of Charge Nurses, Senior Charge Nurses, Home Sister, Nursing Sisters and Nursing Superintendent, are quite different and the Members of each class have duties of more responsible nature than those of the class below that to which they acting. I therefore recommend that officiating promotions should be made admissible to the Nursing Staff with acting allowance.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

S. IV: 3. (N) 1. With reference to your letter No.4186/193-1931, dated 11-6-31 on the above subject, I have the honour to observe as follows.

(1) District Munsiff's Court.

Originally, officiating promotion was held to be permissible to the post of Head Clerk as he had to supervise the work of the clerks working under him. It appears therefore that officiating promotion was allowed not only because his work was different in character but also as his work involved assumption of duties of greater importance than those attaching to the other posts on Rs.35-2-55. If so, a note to the effect may kindly be caused to be inserted below that entry in the above list.

(2) Residency Press.

The entry "Clerk, Store-keeper and Reader" may be corrected into "Clerk and Store-keeper, Reader and Computer" - Vide correction slip No.XXIV 35, dated 25-2-1931 to Appendix D of the Bangalore Manual

(3) Hon'ble the Resident's Treasury.

Officiating promotions have also been declared to be admissible to the posts of Deputy Accountant and 1st Assistant Accountant in Government of India, Foreign and Political Department Memos.Nos.798, dated 6-10-1924 and 798, dated 3-4-1925, respectively, as they involved assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance than than those attaching to the other posts on Rs.35-2-55. I would therefore request that the posts of Deputy Accountant and 1st Assistant Accountant may kindly be included in the above list. An addendum may be issued including the alterations above pointed out.
